Voicing for Children in the K-12 Setting

Description:

Roman II on the EIPA is the second lowest scoring area for educational interpreters across the state. This workshop will help educational interpreters understand each sub section of Roman II as well as develop tools that can be used every day in the classroom to help expand their knowledge and expectations when voicing for children in the educational setting. This workshop will give techniques on how to improve processing time to give their best product and will also give participants hands on experience with receptive skill development.
